Ben McLellan creates artistic expressions in wood to include ornate vases, vessels, salad bowls, and cremation urns. Ben likes to use only hardwoods found in Nova Scotia. The burls of these hardwoods are a favourite. A burl is an irregular growth on a tree that follows no concentric patterning when it develops. The swirls and shapes that result, make an artistic display that woodturning highlights.

YEAR AROUND

2013/2014 Mary E. Black Gallery Exhibition Schedule

Mary E. Black Gallery

April 12 – May 26, Opening reception April 11, 6pm

Pandemonium Diary: New Brunswick artist Bob Morouney’s series of 50 intaglio prints encourage a fresh look at the familiar. His copper plate etchings enhanced by engraving, and/or watercolour additions resemble book illustrations depicting simple stories that offer a choice of interpretations.

May 31 - July 14, Opening reception May 30, 6pm

Variations on Symmetry: The ceramic and mixed media works of Eliza Au & Ying Yeuh Chuang examine symmetrical patterns and forms and their connection to the spiritual and natural worlds.

July 19 – September 1, Opening reception July 18, 6pm

The Quilts and Woven Textiles of Polly Green: Her work during the past 40 years has inspired and served to revitalize Nova Scotia’s textile-based handcrafts by both celebrating and challenging traditional design.

September 6 – 22, Opening reception September 5, 6pm

Residency Works: New works are exhibited by emerging artists, created in our craft studios during this year’s summer residency program.

September 26 – November 3, Opening reception September 25, 6pm

Change Ahead: Members of the Nova Scotia Designer Craft Council address the theme of change – in social context, in the use of technology or technique, in the evolution of their own work. What comes next ????

November 8 – December 22, Opening reception November 7, 6pm

Carrying It Forward: Featuring the work of 6 NS pottery studio artists whose “humble and lively beginnings” during the 1970’s was documented in 2008 in print and is now updated through this exhibition.

January 10 – February 23, 2014 Opening reception January 9, 6 pm

Internationally acclaimed master glass artist, Laura Donefer’s sculptural and mixed media pieces explore themes of longing, loving and grief.

February 27 - April 6, Opening reception February 26, 6 pm

Artists Andrea St. Pierre and Robin Muller exhibit modern Jacquard-woven textiles, apparel and upholstery. An exciting collaboration of colour, texture, line and form.

April 11 – May 25, Opening reception April 10, 6 pm

We are delighted to host side by side solo exhibitions of emerging metal artists, Emily Doiron and Megan Qu. The intricacy and artistry of their jewellery invites close scrutiny.
